RADIANT REIKI

RELAX - RESTORE - REBALANCE

I have been practicing Reiki since 2007. Reiki is everything that I am, and everything that I do. Having a Reiki practice promotes a truly compassionate outlook on life; and instant access to self-calming and self-care techniques.

To experience Reiki is to truly feel our connection with all that is.

The system of Reiki is a Japanese technique of energy work that helps to promote harmony and balance. It is an effective, non-invasive treatment that enhances the body's natural healing ability, whilst energising and promoting overall wellness. Reiki works directly on restoring balance on all levels; physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually.

Reiki encourages deep relaxation and helps the body release stress and tension, dissolve energy blocks and promote the natural balance between mind, body and spirit. Reiki can help relieve pain and support physical healing; compliment medical treatment & other therapies; clear the mind and improve focus as you feel grounded & centred. Reiki can enhance everyday living, and may help to promote the development of a healthier, more resourceful state of being. Reiki is supportive when times get tough.

I welcome every opportunity to talk 'all things Reiki' - please do give me a call for a free consultation where we can discuss how Reiki may help you.

BIORESONANCE

ENERGY- FREQUENCY- VIBRATION

Your Body is Electric! Science has revealed that every cell, tissue, and organ in the body consists of 98% energy, each resonating with a unique frequency and vibration (Brett J. Earl M.D. Psc.D iMD). Over the past five decades, leading scientists worldwide have catalogued thousands of Blueprint Frequencies—universal frequencies found in every healthy human being.

Visionary Scientists like Nikola Tesla, Albert Einstein, Marie Curie, Raymond Rife, and many others believed that at its core, everything is energy. Every cell in your body generates energy, frequency, vibration, and resonance. Balanced frequencies are crucial for optimising your life's quality. Building on their ground-breaking work, I will communicate with the body through subtle bio-frequencies and electromagnetic signals to pinpoint areas of imbalance. The frequencies are then applied—either alone or within soothing or energising music—use tuning vibrations, and energy healing to restore balance. For instance, in an Inner Voice session, balancing audio frequencies are created from the voice spectrum, while MindSync, an affirmation programming tool, enhances affirmations by delivering them through a binaural process, making them more effective by bypassing the subconscious barrier.

I have quite literally been blown away by this technology and it's seamless synergy with holistic healthcare.
